BSW Student Social Worker of the Year Recipient

Holli Blair, BSW Student

Holli Blair is a senior Social Work major at Eastern Kentucky University. She is originally from Greenville, South Carolina, but quickly fell in love with Kentucky. In Holli's free time, she enjoys volunteering, hiking, and traveling. At Eastern Kentucky University, Holli is a Public Child Welfare Certification Scholar and a member of the National Honor Society, Student Alumni Ambassadors, and American Sign Language Association. Holli is the President of the Student Social Work Association (SSWA), a group that strives to end social injustices and advocate for vulnerable populations around the community and world. SSWA holds events on campus, participates in service events in the community, and attends other organizations events that promote advocacy and social justice. With that, Holli is so honored to have received this award and will continue to strive to spread her passion for social work and serve those in need!
